PEACH BRANDY BARREL D·B·V·S·O·J

BARLEYWINE ALE AGED IN BOURBON BARRELS,
RUM BARRELS AND PEACH BRANDY BARRELS

This three-year-spanning cuvee of Straight Jacket Barley-wine hailed from a mix of American and French oak bourbon and rum barrels before its terminal six-month repose in Peach Brandy casks. Borrowing from continental European blending methodologies, this marriage of young and old components provides a harmonious balance of bready and fruity malt expressions in this heady crowd-pleaser.
